2001 ANNUAL MEETING ACCOMMODATION ARRANGEMENTS, PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME AND EXPRESSION OF INTEREST IN ATTENDING

TO: WPC MEMBER ORGANISATIONS, EXECUTIVE BOARD AND PAST OFFICERS
By post, fax, email and on <http://www.worldplumbing.org>

Dear Colleagues

12 April 2001

2001 WPC Annual Meeting Beijing, China

This year's WPC Annual Meeting will be held in Beijing, China and hosted by the China Association of Engineering Construction and Standardisation (CECS) with administrative support from Mr Jin Luo, Director of Asia Pacific Programs, IAPMO.

Because of the pressure on international hotel accommodation in Beijing, it is necessary to make an advance block booking therefore, it will be useful to know if your organisation plans to be represented. Details of the hotel and the discounted room rates follow together with a provisional programme.

I would be grateful therefore if you will complete and fax back the last page of this circular to Maxine Rouse as soon as possible and no later than 31 May 2001. Please note this is not a booking form. The final arrangements for booking events will be sent by IAPMO if you register an Expression of Interest in attending but as stated overleaf, you need to make your hotel reservation direct.

I am sure this meeting will be as successful as our previous gatherings and we are sincerely grateful to our friends from China in extending a warm welcome to our worldwide plumbing community.

Yours sincerely,

Andy Watts
Secretary
